The Maldives is a beckoning destination for Scuba divers, with pristine coral reefs and a diversity of marine life. The beaches are white and the waters clear. The food is delicious, the staff are friendly, and the diving is mind-blowing. This is a place where you can explore the underwater world and see things that you never knew existed.